

Clara Janice Davis

Nov 13, 2017

1927-2017

Born November 30th, 1927 in Mt. Emmons, Utah, Clara Janice Monks Davis left mortality peacefully in her Provo home Saturday, November 11th, 2017 after a long and full life. Known variously as a pioneer woman, the “lightning lady,” and the spirit of the Pleasant View 6th Ward, she left this earth just shy of her ninetieth birthday.

She was preceded in death by her loving husband, D. Evan Davis and son Britton Davis. She is survived by children, Janet Davis McFarland (Thomas), Dawn Elizabeth Davis England (Mark), Ewan

Davis Thompson (Bryan), Curtis Davis, daughter-in-law Christine Hansen Davis, 11 grandchildren and 18 great grandchildren, all of whom she adored.

Her husband, family and Savior are the greatest loves of her life. She loved this world and the beauty of living things, especially her home with its towering trees, fruitful vines, well-tended hedges and lawns. Most of all, she loved fragrant, vivid flowers of all colors and varieties. She prized education and travel, obtaining a Bachelor's degree in education, teaching Special Ed students, and establishing scholarships for her grandchildren. Her love of the gospel led her to serve a mission in West Virginia for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

There will be a viewing Tuesday, November 14, 6:00-8:00 pm at the Rock Canyon Chapel. Funeral services will be held Wednesday, November 15 at 11:00 am at the Rock Canyon Chapel located at 2445 Timpview Drive (N 650 East) Provo, Utah. There will be a viewing prior to the service from 9:30 to 10:30 am. Interment at Provo City Cemetery.
